

Talk About It

Bottom Line

No bottom line this week. We have a panel discussion

Scripture

Philippians 4:6-7

Conversation Questions

1. If you are a parent or guardian, when it comes to technology, how do you set healthy boundaries around the use of technology and why is that important?
2. We live in a sex-saturated culture. How do you strike a balance between protecting your kids and teaching them a healthy understanding of human sexuality?
3. If you are a parent or grandparent, who or what has been your source of wisdom and advice?
4. At every age, kids will experience something challenging. How should we help kids through those experiences and prepare them for future difficulties?
5. At each phase, what can parents do to spiritually form their kids?
6. What is the connection between investing in your marriage and raising your children?
7. Who will you invite to Week 4 of "It's Just A Phase", a message called "Adult Children & Aging Parents"?

Icebreaker

Which app do you use most on your cell phone?

Activity

Discuss takeaways from the panel discussion. What advice or comments stood out to you? Did you question/disagree with anything? What is something you want to implement?
